

International Congress of Psychology

2024

July 21 - 26, Prague, Czech Republic

CALL FOR STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

The International Congress of Psychology (ICP) is the leading global psychological event organised every four years under the auspices of the International Union of Psychological Science. Its tradition reaches back to 1889 when the first ICP Congress was held in Paris. All the fields of psychology will be represented in over 40 thematic areas. Thousands of participants from the whole world are expected as well as top scholars who will deliver keynote and state of the art addresses. While large quantities of participants and renowned experts are vital, no congress can succeed without a number of motivated and competent student volunteers. The 33rd International Congress of Psychology will be hosted by the Czech-Moravian Psychological Society in Prague, Czech Republic during the period of July 21-26, 2024. Do not miss this extraordinary event and consider volunteering for ICP 2024!
